Hassle free recycling solutions for dispensers and Kimberly-Clark Professional™ hand towels

We're committed to reducing waste sent to landfill or incineration. That's why we created the ReNew™ Programme. Instead of sending used products like hand towels and old dispensers to landfill or incineration, these are collected from your business and are recycled into new consumer goods.

Hand Towel Recycling

The majority of used hand towels are just thrown away.

Working together, we will support businesses in meeting the two main goals of improving recycling rates and reducing their waste footprint – ensuring a better future for people, for businesses – and the planet.

Increase your building's recycling rate by up to 5%¹

Support your sustainability goals

Helps you cut your entire waste footprint by up to 25%¹

¹ Based on UK office per person average kg waste

Dispenser Installation and Recycling

Our professional fitters will remove, collect and collate your old dispensers – no matter who the manufacturer is – and ensure your workplace remains healthy, safe and productive during installation of the new ones.

We will ensure your new dispensers are loaded and ready for use and your cleaning staff are completely confident in how to operate and service them.

Our recycling service will breathe new life into your old dispensers, processing the plastic, cardboard and metal screws, and returning the raw materials for use in manufacturing new products.

Solutions that are right for you

We've made it easier than ever to choose from our wide array of products and dispensers by providing you with clear range tiering that enables you to select washroom solutions based on your facility's needs.

The importance of washroom hygiene

Hand drying is an important part of hand hygiene

Did you know paper towels are the most hygienic option for hand drying?

Paper towels:

Physically reduce bacteria as well as moisture when used for drying.

Are preferred by 90% of people when given a choice in their washroom.²

Are the World Health Organisation's (WHO) recommended hand-drying method.³

The facts speak for themselves

Not only are paper towels a more effective way of protecting your employees' and visitor's hand hygiene, they are also the most popular choice.
